DECREES REGARDING ELECTIONS

1. We summon the Ekklesia out of obscurity to take its rightful place in the stewardship and oversight of elections.

2. We decree that the Ekklesia rises to lawful engagement and visible responsibility in every election cycle.

3. We decree that the Ekklesia stands at the gates of decision with discernment and authority over electoral processes.

4. We decree that the Ekklesia is activated to pray, participate, and remain watchful over ballots and outcomes.

5. We decree that the Ekklesia functions as a restraining force against corruption and deception in elections.

6. We decree that truth is upheld through the involvement of the Ekklesia in voting, oversight, and civic duty.

7. We decree that righteous influence is released through the Ekklesia to secure just and lawful election outcomes.

8. We decree that righteousness governs all elections and election outcomes, and that every phase of the electoral process is subject to lawful authority and righteous judgment.

8. We decree that all authority exercised in elections and governance is accountable to God, and that no unrighteous rule carries lawful standing over the people.

9. We decree that God establishes and removes rulers, and that no civil authority operates independent of His judgment.

10. We decree that all elected officials, candidates, judges, administrators, and election authorities are held to standards of justice, truth, and lawful integrity.

11. We decree that no position of governmental or electoral authority is lawfully established through corruption, fraud, deception, or injustice.

12. We decree that truth and justice govern governance and elections, and that deception or misrepresentation carries no authority or standing.

13. We decree that all plans or strategies that contradict righteous governance or lawful elections are without standing and rendered null and void.

14. We decree that no individual, entity, network, or spiritual force is permitted to unlawfully interfere with elections or usurp God's order.

©Lisa Knight Windahl. 2026. All rights Reserved.

15. We decree that interference with voting, counting, tabulation, certification, or outcomes is prohibited in all forms.

16. We decree that every coordinated plan to disrupt elections is rendered ineffective and inoperable.

17. We decree that planners, organizers, financiers, and operatives of election interference are prohibited from mobilizing, coordinating, communicating, or acting.

18. We decree that all covert or concealed interference efforts are compelled into exposure and restrained before execution.

19. We decree that weather manipulation, cloud seeding, geoengineering, engineered storms, atmospheric tampering, or artificial disruptions intended to affect elections are strictly prohibited.

20. We decree that no environmental or atmospheric condition shall be weaponized for political gain or voter suppression.

21. We decree that violence, threats, intimidation, or force intended to interfere with elections is strictly prohibited.

22. We decree that emergencies, riots, or civil disturbances shall not be staged, exploited, or used to disrupt elections and that Angel Armies are deployed to intercept any and all attempts prior to execution.

23. We decree that interference with power grids, communication systems, election technology, transportation networks, or polling locations is strictly prohibited.

24. We decree that cyberattacks, sabotage, insider compromise, and coordinated system failures against election infrastructure are prohibited.

25. We decree that all election infrastructure remains operational, secure, and stable.

26. We decree that backup systems are fortified, access points secured, and vulnerabilities sealed.

27. We decree that fear-based tactics intended to suppress voters, intimidate communities, or create confusion lack authority and effect.

28. We decree that deceptive or coercive strategies aimed at influencing voters or outcomes are barred from operation.

29. We decree that no person or entity is authorized to obstruct or disrupt transportation used for voting or election administration.

©Lisa Knight Windahl. 2026. All rights Reserved.

30. We decree that polling locations, ballot sites, counting centers, tabulation facilities, and certification sites are secured by Angel Armies against unauthorized access or disruption.

31. We decree that no unauthorized presence or interference is permitted at any election facility. We seal the gates with the blood of Christ at all polling locations, ballot sites, counting centers, tabulation facilities, and certification sites

32. We decree that networks seeking to incite unrest or post-election chaos are prohibited from communication, funding, leadership, and mobilization.

33. We decree that no manufactured outage, disruption, or manipulated event is authorized to affect election operations for political advantage.

34. We decree that only lawful votes cast by eligible voters in compliance with election law are authorized to influence election outcomes.

35. We decree that fraudulent, unlawful, manipulated, duplicate, or ineligible votes are rejected and excluded from all counts.

36. We decree that no false vote is processed or counted at any stage of the election process.

37. We decree that all attempts to steal, manipulate, overturn, or unlawfully alter election outcomes are strictly prohibited and shall not come into fruition.

38. We decree that no election outcome established through fraud, coercion, or manipulation is sustained or validated.

39. We decree that what is lawful and true remains, and what is unlawful and false is removed.

40. We decree that angelic hosts assigned by God are deployed to guard election sites and related infrastructure. We decree that these hosts restrain interference and secure order without incident.

41. We decree that no individual or entity is permitted to approach election sites with intent to interfere, intimidate, manipulate, or cause harm. All attempts are lawfully restrained and prohibited from advancement.

42. We decree that all persons and networks preparing election interference are exposed and restrained before execution.

43. We decree that no act of harm, disruption, or sabotage reaches execution against election personnel, sites, or systems.

©Lisa Knight Windahl. 2026. All rights Reserved.

44. We decree that angelic protection operates in coordination with lawful authority to preserve peace and election integrity.

45. We decree that election sites remain guarded, uninterrupted, and secure by the Angel Armies.

45. We decree that those who seek to interfere with elections are brought into accountability before harm is executed.

46. We decree that all evidence in connection with fraud of whatsoever kind or nature shall be maintained and preserved so that justice will be administered swiftly and uninterrupted.

47. We decree that the throne of the Most High governs the electoral process, and that His authority supersedes all human, institutional, and unseen powers.

48. We decree that God's perfect will is established in every election, and that no outcome contrary to His purposes is sustained.

49. We decree that no weapon formed against the integrity of our elections prospers, advances, or succeeds.

50. We decree that the candidate selected by the Most High is established, seated, and confirmed in rightful authority.

51. We decree that righteousness exalts the nation through those established in office.

52. We decree that the Kingdom of God advances through lawful authority and righteous leadership.

53. We decree that only candidates appointed and hand-picked by the Most High God shall appear on and remain upon the ballots in the primary elections.

54. We decree that any candidate not appointed by God is exposed and removed from the primary election process, and their efforts shall not prosper.

55. We decree that the hand of the Lord governs the ballots and nullifies manipulation, corruption, and unlawful interference in the primary elections.

56. We decree that the Most High God stirs the Ekklesia to rise and become active throughout every election cycle with discernment and obedience.

57. We decree that the Ekklesia engages the election process through prayer and watchful oversight to contend for righteous governance.

58. We decree that apathy and passivity are broken off the Ekklesia and that clarity and resolve are released.

©Lisa Knight Windahl. 2026. All rights Reserved.

59. We decree that the voice of the righteous prevails at the gates and that leadership ordained by God is established through lawful and just elections.

60. We decree that all corrupt communications used by people and entities who devise wicked plots and schemes to defraud the American people through elections are confounded, disrupted, and rendered ineffective.

©Lisa Knight Windahl. 2026. All rights Reserved.